

DATE: MAY 9TH, 2025

VENUE: NOVA SCHOOL OF LAW, ANFITEATRO B

	Session	Speaker	Title
09:00 – 09:20	Registration
09:20 – 09:30	Welcome Address	NOVA School of Law
09:30 – 10:30	Session 1	Jan-Frederick Göhsl, University of Münster	Demystifying the Concept of Fairness in Recent European Digital Legislation
		Nada Ina Pauer, Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition	On Private Law Concepts to Integrate Fairness Parameters for Digital Markets
		Michał Jabłoński, University of Warsaw	Towards Increased EU Law Standard of Consumer and User Protection in the Digital Market
10:30 – 11:00	Q&A
11:00 – 11:40	Session 2	Sarah Al Jashi, LexisNexis	Internet Risk Regulation: Lessons about Art. 102 TFEU, Art. 5(2) DMA, and Excessive Data Extractions
		Graça Enes, Universidade do Porto / CIJ	The digital risk society in search of regulation
11:40 – 12:00	Q&A
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch Break
13:30 – 14:30	Keynote Speech	Cristiana Santos, Utrecht University
14:30 – 15:10	Session 3	Martim Farinha, NOVA School of Law	Untangling the Spaghetti Code of EU Law: Toward a Digital Fairness Act
		Elena Bouka, Accenture	Facial Emotion Recognition and the Risk-Based Approach in the AI Act
15:10 – 15:20	Q&A
15:20 – 16:00	Session 4	Marianna Molinari & Marco Giacalone, Bologna, Turin & VUB	AI and Digital Justice in EU Labor Law
		Andrea Filippo Ferraris & Marco Giacalone, Vrije Universiteit Brussel	Redefining Asset Division: How EU Should Go Digital
16:00 – 16:10	Q&A
16:10 – 16:30	Health Break
16:30 – 17h30	Session 5	Nastazja Potocka-Sionek, University of Luxembourg	Countering Workers' Precarity in the AI Age
		Manuel Cabugueira & João Pateira Ferreira, Universidade Lusófona	Regulation and Competition in the Digital Ecosystem: A Quantum Approach
		František Kasl, Pavel Loutocky, Martin Erlebach, Masaryk University	Codes of Conduct as Tools for Fair Regulation in Complex Digital Markets
17:30 – 17:40	Q&A
17:40 – 18:20	Session 6	Natalia Menendez Gonzalez, Niccolò Galli, Marco Botta, EUI	Political Economy of the AI Act and DMA: Insights for the SEP Regulation
		Carlos Antunes, Portuguese National Cybersecurity Centre	The Rebirth of Administrative Law in the Digital Age
18:20 – 18:30	Q&A
18:30 – 18:35	Closing Remarks	Fabrizio Esposito, NOVA School of Law	