

BEST THESIS AWARD

WhatNext.Law Best Thesis Award

Call for Submissions 2026

1. The WhatNext.Law Best Thesis Award will be awarded to the best master thesis in any of the subjects in which WhatNext.Law conducts innovative research on, including but not limited to the following:
 - a. Artificial Intelligence;
 - b. FutureHealth;
 - c. Emerging Technologies;
 - d. Online Platforms and e-Commerce;
 - e. Smart Cities;
 - f. Space;
 - g. Sustainability;
 - h. Mobility;
 - i. Digital Economy;
 - j. Public Administration;
2. Applicants must have successfully defended their thesis between September 1 2024 and September 29 2026.
3. Submissions must include:
 - a. the thesis for submission in both Word and PDF format (or equivalent);
 - b. an WhatNext.law Insight, an online short-form blog post presenting and reviewing the thesis (its topic, arguments and conclusions) which uses the WhatNext.law template and adheres to the WhatNext.law insight guidelines;
 - c. master's degree certificate.

By submitting their thesis and insight, applicants acknowledge their acceptance of WhatNext.Law Best Thesis Award Regulation and this Call for Submissions.

4. Applications should be sent to info@whatnext.law until the 23h59 of September 29 2026.
5. Results will be communicated to the participants until October 15 2026. The Jury reserves the right to delay the decision to award a winner if necessary.

WhatNext.Law

<https://whatnext.law>
info@whatnext.law

6. The Jury of WhatNext.Law Best Thesis Award 2026 is composed by:
 - a. Fabrizio Espositio, NOVA School of Law;
 - b. Iakovina Kindylidi, NOVA School of Law and VdA;
 - c. Martim Farinha, NOVA School of Law and VdA;
7. The Award of WhatNext.Law Best Thesis Award is 1500€ (one thousand and five hundred euros). The winner and other theses selected as honorable mentions by the Jury shall be published by WhatNext.Law.
8. The WhatNext.law insights of the winner and honorable mentions submitted alongside the theses shall be published by WhatNext.Law.